FORCED DISPLACEMENT AND DEMOGRAPHIC ENGINEERING IN SYRIA

VILLA MOYNIER | 120B RUE DE LAUSANNE | GENEVA | WEDNESDAY 7 NOVEMBER 2018 | 17:30 - 19:00

THE ACADEMY A JOINT CENTER OF
In the context of the 2018 Geneva Peace Week and in partnership with the International Bar Association’s Human Rights Institute (IBAHRI), this event will address forced displacement and demographic engineering in Syria.

On this occasion, a high-level panel composed of United Nations and independent experts, as well as Syrian civil society actors, will discuss two major issues:

• The systematic patterns of forced displacement and legislative and policy frameworks demonstrating demographic engineering in Syria, with a view to assessing their compliance with international humanitarian and human rights law

• Pitfalls and challenges in any upcoming reconstruction and return plan, with a view to suggesting recommendations to the international community, in light of past experience in other countries.

OPENING REMARKS

- Natacha Bracq, IBAHRI Programme Lawyer
- Marco Sassoli, Director, Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights

MODERATOR

- Barbara McCallin, Independent expert on forced displacement, housing, land and property

PANELLISTS

- Emma Beals, Independent journalist and analyst, European Institute of Peace
- Toby Cadman, UK Barrister, Guernica 37
- Ibrahim Olabi, Executive Director, Syrian Legal Development Programme (SLDP)
- Marco Sassoli, Director, Geneva Academy of International Humanitarian Law and Human Rights
- Amr Shannan, Syrian Expert
- Rhodri Williams, Senior Legal Expert, International Legal Assistance Consortium

REGISTRATION

All interested participants need to register to attend this event via the online form on our website.

RECEPTION

The event will be followed by a drinks reception.