

BUILDING BACK BETTER: A FOCUS ON THE RIGHT TO HEALTH AND THE RIGHT TO FOOD

6-10 JUNE 2022
GENEVA AND ONLINE

This training course builds on a series of training delivered during the last years around different Economic, social and cultural rights (ESCR) and their links to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This 2022 edition will focus on the topical question of the COVID impact, including backlashes in the progress towards the SDGs, with a focus on the rights to health and food.

© ILO Asia Pacific

PROGRAMME

The course covers the following issues:

- Human rights-based approaches to development
- The inclusion of human rights in the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development
- SDGs 1 to 17: towards the full realization of ESCR for all?
- No one will be left behind: the end of inequality and discrimination?
- Gender, ESCR and SDGs
- The High-Level Policy Forum on Sustainable Development
- The global COVID-19 crisis' impact on the rights to health and food and related SDGs
- Collection of disaggregated data and indicators
- The role of UN human rights mechanisms in monitoring pandemic recovery programs (Human Rights Council, Special Procedures, and Treaty Bodies)
- The potential contribution of UN human rights mechanisms to building back better, with the rights to health and food, and related SDGs at the centre
- Discussions with international human rights experts.

LECTURERS

The training course is given by members of academia and senior professionals from the Geneva Academy, international organizations, including the UN Development Programme (UNDP) and the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR), UN Special Procedures mandate holders, and NGOs.

METHODOLOGY

The course is interactive and participants are encouraged to share their own experiences and perspectives on the issues. The training sessions include lectures and discussions with experts, as well as practical examples and case studies. Sessions are designed to enhance knowledge exchange with peers and facilitators. Throughout this course, participants will have the opportunity to engage with international human rights experts.

AUDIENCE

This training course is designed for staff of NGOs, development and human rights institutions, UN bodies and other international organizations, as well as representatives of governments and members of academia.

CERTIFICATION

Participants who successfully complete the training course receive a certificate of participation from the Geneva Academy.

IN GENEVA AND ONLINE

The course can be followed in Geneva or online.

APPLICATION DEADLINES AND FEE

Applications must be submitted via the online application form, available on our website.

Attendance in Geneva

The training fee for this five-day programme is 1,530 Swiss Francs and includes tuition costs, course materials, 5 lunches, and refreshments during coffee breaks.

Discount for Online Attendance*

The training fee for those attending the course online is 1,250 Swiss Francs.

Discount for PhD and Master Students*

There is a 30 percent discount for PhD and master students.

Deadlines:

- Application end with visa: 10 April 2022
- Application end (without visa and online): 22 May 2022