

SHORT COURSE ON THE INTERNATIONAL CRIMINAL COURT

VILLA MOYNIER, 120 B RUE DE LAUSANNE, GENEVA | 21 APRIL - 19 MAY 2017

What is the impact of the International Criminal Court (ICC) on the fight against impunity? What is the role of its Prosecutor? What is the ICC's case law regarding genocide and crimes against humanity? How does it deal with amnesties and truth commissions? This course examines the role and activities of the ICC. It addresses questions related to its jurisdiction, structures and procedural regime and provides an introduction to the major debates about interpretation of the ICC Statute.

AUDIENCE

This course forms part of the Geneva Academy Executive Master in International Law in Armed Conflict. It is open to professionals – diplomats, lawyers, legal advisers, judges, NGO staff, human rights advocates, media specialists, professionals working in emergency situations, UN staff and staff from other international organizations – who are not enrolled in the Executive Master and who want to deepen their expertise in this specific issue.

CERTIFICATE

Participants obtain a certificate at the end of the course (no ECTS credits are gained).
